Character Name: Karim Ali

Karim Ali is an 18 year old student who has joined college. He hails from Dadri. His proud parents send him to Vellore Institute of Technology. However his first experience of college life turns out to be dark. In his first month itself he gets to know about the communal violence that occurred in Dadri. His family members were injured and his house was vandalised, due to Hindu Muslim communal violence. This made him quite upset and when he expressed his grief to his friend Dhruv who in turn starts shelling out racist comments. Dhruv and his group of friends torture him mentally by calling him a terrorist and belonging to a household of terrorism. This makes Karim very upset and wants to take revenge. He then comes under the influence of Tabrez Khan who turns out to be working for ISIS. Brainwashed by the ISIS and Tabrez Khan, he is ready to take any extreme measure. Karim with the help of the equipment provided by ISIS was ready to bomb the college campus as a sign of revenge. The movie ends with a powerful scene of Karim and police's encounter.

Karim is a perfect example of the weak targets that are used by ISIS as pawns to carry out their malicious activities. This is a major issue in the entire world. Terrorism is most sponsored through colleges and educational institutions. Terror organisations generally deploy small units in these institutions to harbour terrorism and use the youth of their destructive purposes.
